

E-commerce sites - Sell Online!

Showcase your products and add credibility to your business. Sell 24/7, while you sleep, take holidays or develop your product.

Research shows that people are more likely to purchase goods online where they can deliberate over their purchase, and even revisit the site to show partners before they complete the transaction. Internet shoppers are generally more affluent, better educated and more likely to spend money online.

There are three ways keep up with progress and expand a business onto the internet;

Choice one

Spend money buying e-commerce software then spend time learning how to use it. Maybe attend a web design course, then muddle through producing a usable site. However: one wrong click could wipe the whole site!

Choice two

Have it put together by 'a mate of a mate down the pub who knows about that sort of thing'.

Choice three

Save time and money: get it professionally designed and published. Enjoy the credibility of having a slick, professional site and sell more product.

You don't have to know everything about the internet or become a computer geek!

Processing the orders is easy - watch them roll-in!

We design all websites, from personal CVs of one page, to e-commerce sites such as online shops, CMS sites, editable by you, and Database driven sites for processing client information.

Our recent online shops include: www.gembags.co.uk

We approach Website Production from a Design and Marketing angle, that is to say, we produce the best design to answer your brief, not the design which is simplest for us to output.

We also optimise every site we produce for search engines, increasing your page ranking, and client interest

Establishing a great client relationship is absolutely paramount to us and communication is the key to this. We provide a complete service to you which includes support after your site has been published.

What you get:
